

Tommy Chong has been raided by the FBI 13 times this month. He's had all of his assets seized, and needs a new computer to continue running his online "vase" business.

He can use "placeholder-name" to find the right parts and build the computer of his dreams.

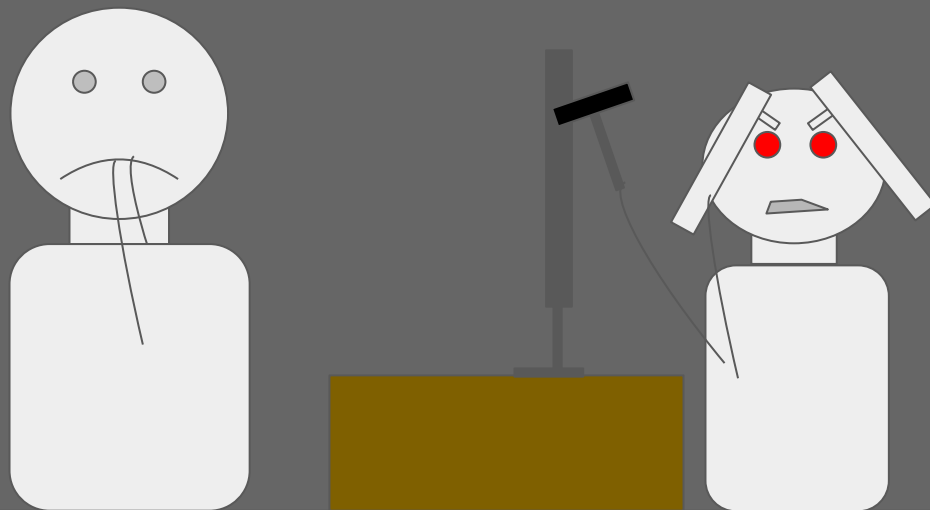

Tommy is smarter now because he uses McDolans public wi-fi. He can now sell his custom "Vases" online.

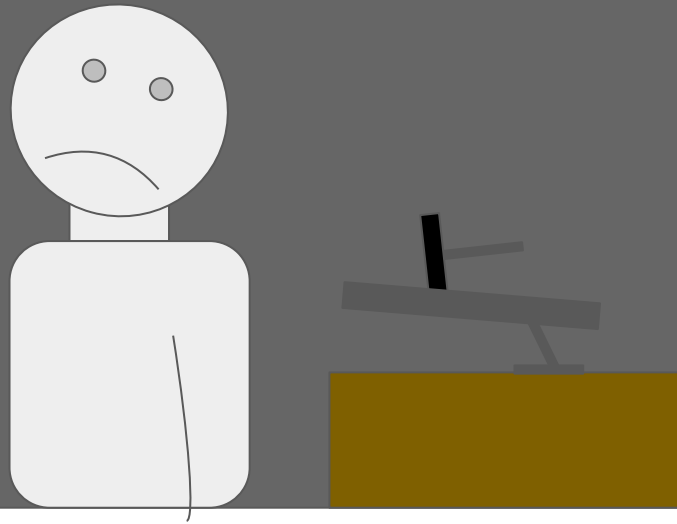

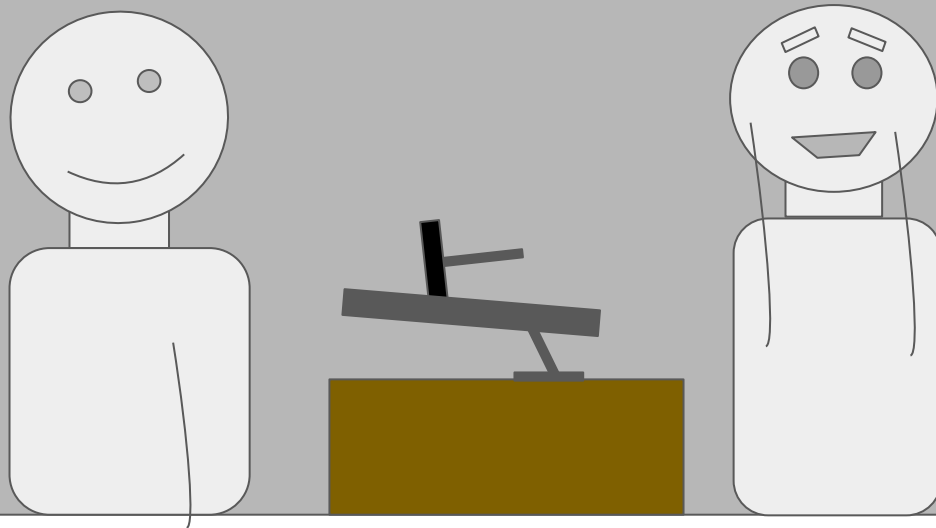

Jim loves playing violent video games but his mother doesn't approve.

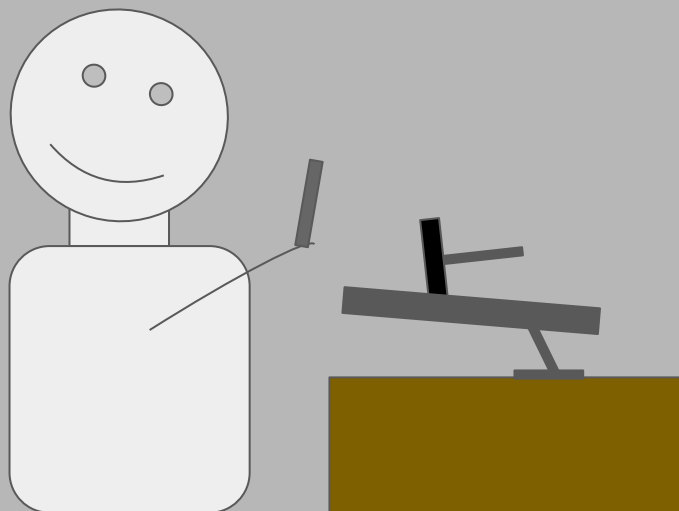

After she found him playing Call of Duty she smashed his computer.

What can Jim do now? He doesn't know what parts to get to repair his computer?

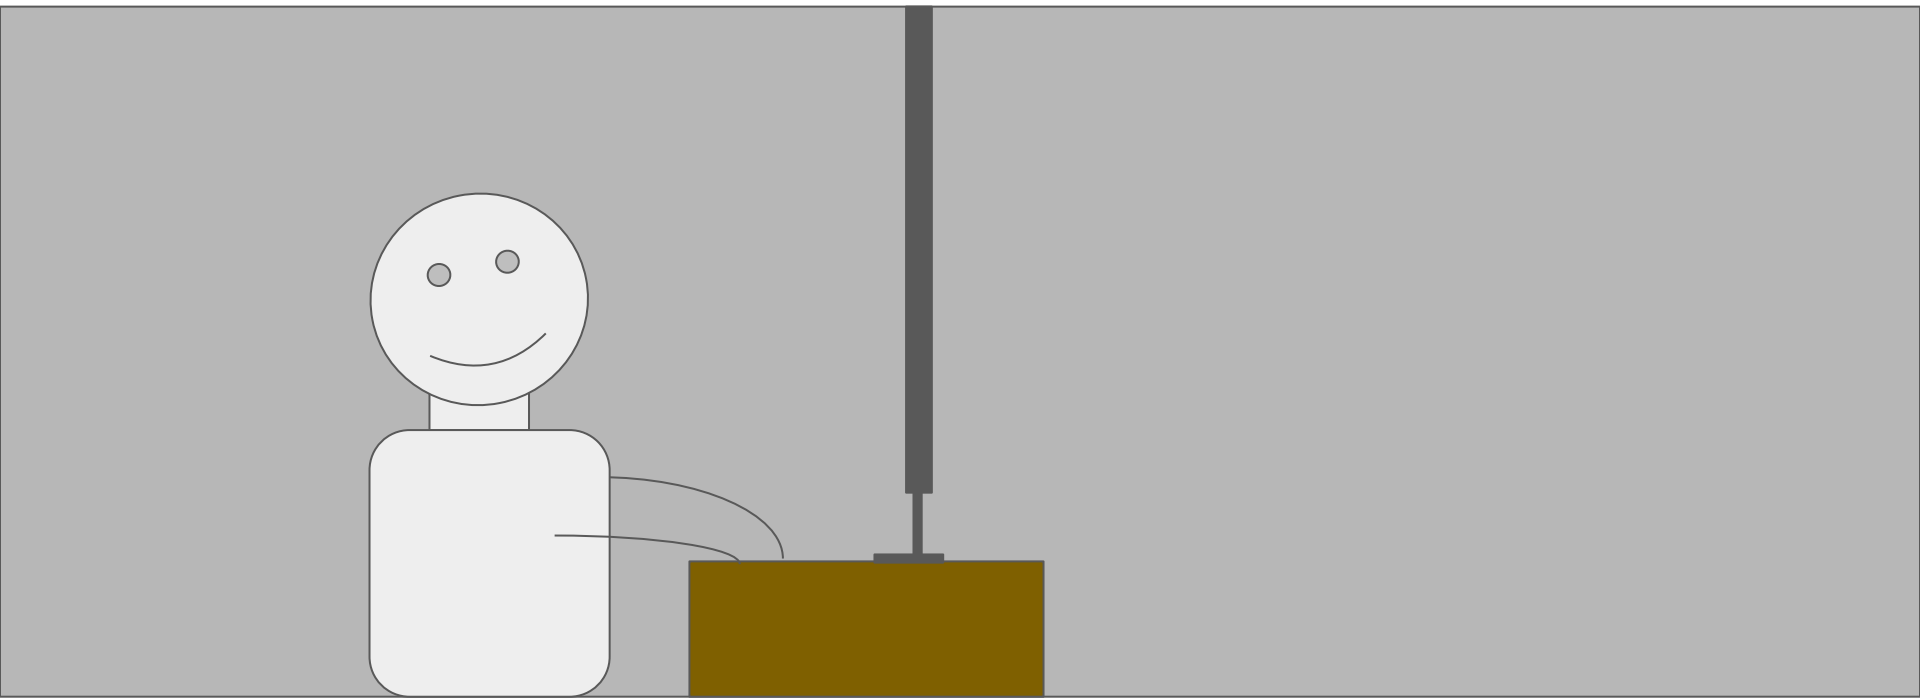

Jim's Dad explains that he can use Buy Best to find the best and most affordable deals on computer parts.

Jim downloads Buy Best and immediately finds the best prices for the best PC parts.

Jim now enjoys playing violent video games on his new affordable PC

Guy has just gotten home. After a long day at the plant, he wants nothing more to wind down in silence.

Just as soon as he gets home, his teenage son begins whining about needing new video games.

Before Guy goes postal, an ad flashes across his tv screen for a new app to get the best deals on video games and computer hardware. Desperate, he downloads the app.

Guy types out a quick search for Video Games and sorts by lowest prices. Immediately, the cheapest deals on the internet appear on his screen.

Guy is surprised by the easy, no-fluff interface and quickly finds a great deal on the Wal-Mart website for Farm Simulator 2023.

Crisis Averted!
